

26 February – 01 March 2020

Berlin

Berlin, the capital of Germany, is one of the most impressive cities in the world. The cosmopolitan city is constantly reinventing itself. The metropolis is a city of culture, politics, media and science and a popular tourist destination of course. Berlin is home to world famous universities, museums, orchestras and entertainment venues and is known for its contemporary arts, festivals, nightlife and diverse architecture. This unique blend gives the city a special flair and makes it one of Europe's most important cultural centers and favorite holiday destination.
